

Work with online, interactive publisher catalogs

WordStock-Edelweiss Interface

Access Edelweiss electronic catalogues for ordering

Edelweiss is an online, interactive catalog system for presenting new titles from participating publishers in a standardized format so booksellers need to learn only one system. Edelweiss users can review and use catalogs from all subscribing publishers and is available at no charge to booksellers. WordStock's interface enables you to convert Edelweiss files into purchase orders and/or inventory records.

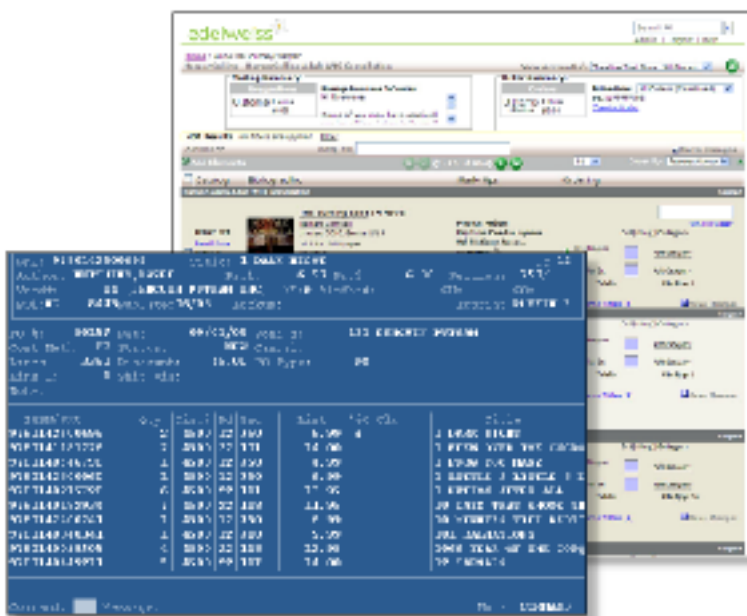

What you need to use Edelweiss with WordStock:

- An Edelweiss account—see below for signup info
- WordStock-Edelweiss Interface Software
- High-speed Internet access

Participating publishers include:

- Baker Publishing
- Cambridge University Press
- Columbia University Press
- Diamond Book Distributors
- Disney Press
- Georgetown University Press
- Hachette Book Group
- HarperCollins Publishers
- Hay House Publishers
- Ingram Publisher Services
- Microsoft Press
- Penguin Group
- Quayside Publishing Group
- Random House
- Thomas Nelson
- Tyndale House Publishers
- W.W. Norton & Company
- Workman Publishing

The Interface creates WordStock Inventory records and Purchase Orders from Edelweiss files

What it costs:

- Single site (per store) : $7/month + installation
- Multi-site HQ w/Central Ordering: $30/month + installation
